Dearly beloved friends

Here
am I - here are 'the Eblins' and as you know, here are 'the Rabbi' - Thanks to your loving words I am with them all as 'of them' - to meet the 'Eblins' here is of course a great delight to me - and then I am to go to Bristol with them - so it is said - + it is so easy to yield to pleasant guidance - as I have found them now almost six weeks that I have been here - that I am nothing loth to go to either such kind friends would lead me. I feel to me that it will be a great personal enjoyment. would that I might be able, when with them, to aid the Cause - Even after all that I had heard of them - I cannot but feel astonished at their knowledge of the Cause and their devotion to it - truly 'one half had not been told me'.

You know that I have been with H. Martineau &

E. Pease – to myself most pleasantly – You are going to Switzerland. What if I met you there? Miss Estlin says perhaps her aunt will join me in an excursion thither – this looks possible only to me, not probable – but should such an event be brought about I guess 'you may calculate' that we shall give you a call – Would I not be happy to have this happiness heaped on to the mountains of Switzerland. Caroline almost promised me – to be my 'Courier' – "We shall see what we shall see" for I get live 'day by day. What
